candidate information

Head's introduction

Thank you for your interest in the position of Deputy Head (Wider Curriculum) at The Leys. I am delighted that you are exploring the possibility of joining our community at what is an exceptionally exciting moment in the School's development.

The Leys is a deeply special place: a warm, humane, purposeful community, rooted in longstanding values while looking confidently to the future. At The Leys, we take genuine pride in being a school where pupils and colleagues alike feel known, supported and able to excel.

Our vision is clear. We aim to provide an education that is inspiring, purposeful, and shaped by a global outlook. We develop pupils who grow in ambition, confidence and attain a variety of life skills through their time at The Leys whilst espousing values centred on kindness, respect and the dignity of every individual. These values, inherited from our Methodist foundation, remain the cornerstone of life here and shape the daily interactions that build our culture.

The Leys is thriving. Our recent ISI Inspection Report affirmed the strength and depth of our provision, and last summer's public examination results, the best in the School's history, reflect the sustained focus on the quality of teaching and learning. This academic momentum is matched by the vibrancy of our wider school life: pupils engage wholeheartedly in sport, performing arts, service and partnership work, outdoor education, leadership opportunities and the full richness of wider-curricular endeavour.

Our ambition stretches beyond outcomes. We want pupils to look back on their time at The Leys not only as preparation for life, but as one of the most joyful, challenging and formative chapters of their young lives.

As part of the Leys and St Faith's Schools Foundation, we also benefit from exceptional stability, financial strength and partnership. Our relationship with St Faith's, our outstanding sister school, enriches our educational ecosystem and strengthens our shared ethos.

Head's introduction

Within this context, the role of Deputy Head (Wider Curriculum) is pivotal. You will have the opportunity to help shape the next phase of our academic vision, ensuring that our teaching is consistently inspiring and that our curriculum remains engaging, rigorous and responsive to the needs of our pupils. This is a role for a leader who is intellectually curious, relationally astute and excited by the challenge of working within a busy, warm and ambitious boarding school.

The person we appoint will be an excellent communicator, highly organised and emotionally intelligent, with the ability to support, inspire and challenge colleagues in equal measure. At The Leys, leadership is rooted in trust, respect and professional generosity; we value collaboration, good humour, humility and the ability to bring others with you through authentic relationships and leading by example.

If you share our belief that education should provide both excellence and joy, if you are motivated by the prospect of guiding teachers and pupils to achieve their very best, and if you are drawn to a school where warmth of community is matched by personal aspiration, I would be delighted to receive your application.

I wish you the very best as you learn more about our School, and I hope to welcome you to The Leys in the near future.

Welcome to The Leys

Life at The Leys

The Leys is a co-educational boarding and day school for pupils aged between 11 and 18. Set in the heart of the beautiful and stimulating city of Cambridge, one of the world's leading cultural and academic centres, The Leys' unique location allows pupils unrivalled access to the vast array of cultural and educational opportunities that Cambridge has to offer.

Established in 1875, The Leys values its history, yet it blends traditional values – courtesy, tolerance, respect, decency – with a forward and outward-looking approach to education. Dedicated staff and superb facilities combine powerfully to prepare young people for the challenges which lie ahead at university and beyond.

The Leys is a close-knit, engaged, friendly community of around 550 pupils in which pastoral care is seen as the top priority. Indeed, our 2025 ISI report identified our school culture and the strength of our community as a significant strength. Academic value-added is impressive and the breadth of the wider curriculum is renowned. The School caters for Boarding, Home Boarding and Day pupils but, with 70% of pupils accommodated in boarding houses, boarding is absolutely central to the ethos of the School and all pupils benefit from the vibrancy and structure which this provides.

Purpose

The Purpose of The Leys is to play our part in changing the world for the better.

We do this by making a positive difference to the lives, values and prospects of Leysians, by being professional, caring and rewarding in developing and managing our staff, by being a responsive and trusted partner to our parents, and by making a beneficial and sustainable contribution to the wider community

By foundation and structure, The Leys is a boarding community. We also place great value on being a “big, small school” embedded in the heart of Cambridge, and on giving Leysians a rich and rewarding academic and wider school experience – one they find valuable both intrinsically and in preparing for their futures. We seek, in the spirit of our Methodist founders and our Christian values, to send Leysians out into the world ready – academically, culturally, morally, physically, spiritually and socially – to live fulfilling lives which will make a positive contribution to society.

In order to achieve our Purpose, we aim to deliver an education which is built on three foundation stones: pastoral, academic and wider curricular. Whilst interconnected, ‘pastoral’ is accepted as pre-eminent, because pupils who feel supported and confident are able to flourish in all areas of the life of the school. Our teaching staff body all contribute to all three pillars of Leys School life, thus we all work together to ensure our pupils develop into happy, confident and well-rounded individuals ready to leave school and find their place in the world.

Pastoral Care

Pastoral Care is at the heart of what we do. We know that wellbeing is crucial to success in wider school life, and we all work together as a community to ensure that each pupil flourishes in school, feeling nurtured, supported and happy. Our House structure is central to this: all pupils are a member of a House throughout their time in school. Year 7 and 8 pupils are members of our junior house, Moulton, and then pupils in Year 9 and above join one of the eight boarding or three day houses. The vertical arrangement in the senior houses creates opportunity for pupils to support each other, and the houses are staffed with a Housemaster or Housemistress (HSM), an Assistant HSM, a Matron and a team of teaching staff. Pupils also have a tutor, who supports them with their wellbeing, academic progress and wider curricular involvement as they progress through the school. All staff are expected to contribute to our pastoral support of pupils, through tutoring, supporting the teaching of PHSE and undertaking weekly house duties.

Wider Curriculum

The Wider Curriculum is an integral part of the school week for all pupils and staff, with a significant amount of time in the afternoons and early evenings devoted to it. In their time at The Leys, pupils are actively encouraged to experience a broad range of activities that will bring them a wide range of benefits; activities in which they find enjoyment and fun whilst developing skills, personal qualities and attitudes that are transferable to other areas of their life at school and beyond.

The Leys' Personal Development and Leadership programme (PDL) for pupils in Year 10 and above ensures that all pupils develop leadership, broaden their horizons and collaborate with their peers on projects, often trying to solve contemporary problems. Through our outstanding sporting, music and drama provision, pupils develop as confident and well-rounded young men and women, ready for life beyond school. Our broad and varied after school activities programme enables pupils to develop their interests, skills and strengths. Through this we aim to complement the pastoral and academic pillars of an all-round Leysian education alongside boosting the physical and mental well-being of all involved in the wider curriculum. All staff contribute to our extensive wider curriculum programme through involvement in games, PDL, outdoor education, and a wide range of clubs and activities.

Teaching and Learning

Education is about so much more than passing exams, and at The Leys pupils are encouraged to develop an understanding of their own learning, find their passions, curiosity, and develop a lifelong appetite for knowledge.

Pupils are supported in their learning by excellent teaching both inside and outside of the classroom, with academic enrichment and extension embedded into the culture of the school. We understand that teachers are individuals and that they will have their own ways of expressing their passion and interest in their subjects. The 2025 ISI comment that we have a "highly inclusive environment, which supports pupils to become exceptionally thoughtful and considerate citizens." sums up the impact of that individuality. That said, we know that aspects change within education, and we just completed an exciting transition from Google Classroom to Microsoft Teams and OneNote. Pupils and staff all have a digital device, and pupils are used to working digitally as well as on paper.

Academic Attainment at The Leys is outstanding. This summer, the school achieved its best academic results on record at GCSE and close to best at A Level, placing us 67th in the Times Parent Power Rankings for independent schools nationally, and 84th for all schools. At GCSE 86% of all grades awarded were 9, 8 or 7, and 38% were graded 9, and at A Level 85% of results were grade A*-B. The School uses value added as an important measure of success and we are delighted that all our 2025 public examination results demonstrate that we added significant value to our pupils' academic attainment compared to similar schools: a testament to the hard work and dedication of both staff and pupils.

General Teacher Expectations

The Leys is a boarding school, and we have lessons running across 6 days each week. Lessons happen on a Saturday morning until 11:50am, and the afternoon is filled with sporting activity including fixtures.

Teachers at the Leys are expected to contribute to all three of the School's Pillars: Pastoral, Academic and Wider Curriculum. Pastoral contributions take the form of tutoring, house duties and teaching PHSE whilst the wider curriculum includes games, PDL, outdoor education and clubs and activities. House duties vary depending on the type of house: day house duties involve breaktime, lunchtime and afternoon/after school supervision whilst boarding house duties involve working with pupils in the evenings. Staff also support the day to day running of the School through involvement in school duties, on a rota basis.

We know that working in a boarding school is busy! Our staff feel this is undoubtedly worth it for the reward gained from the wider interactions they have with pupils, coming to know each child as an individual, not just as a pupil in the classroom. We work with our teachers to harness their strengths and passions both inside and outside of the classroom, so that there is joy for all of us in what we do. In addition, class sizes at The Leys are typically no larger than 24, and are often much smaller, particularly in Years 7 and 8 and the Sixth Form. Teaching allocations are lower than in state and day schools, to account for the involvement in the wider life of the school. Saturday lesson time is 'paid back' through shorter term lengths, and thus longer school holidays. Finally, four Leave Weekends spaced throughout the year provide the entire school community with some additional rest and relaxation.
